

TIPS TO BECOME A RESPONSIBLE TENANT

While it is important to be aware of your rights as a tenant, it is equally important to build a good relationship with the property owner.

As a tenant, follow these simple tips to maintain cordial relationship with the property owner.

Be honest & transparent in your lease application.

Read your lease carefully & make sure that you abide by the terms.

Seek permission from the property owner before making any changes to the property.

Be punctual in paying the rent. A responsible tenant always makes his payments on time.

Take care of the rental as your own home & inform the property owner of any maintenance issues at the earliest.

Avoid being a nudging tenant by complaining about minute issues & try to analyze the situation before complaining.
